Well it's finally here. It's been a long process bringing together this new competition and after months of waiting we can finally kick off a new era of sport in the Outer Eastern Region with a clash between two of our incoming South East clubs – Berwick and Narre Warren.

Once that first ball is thrown, kicked, marked or caught we will be able to put all of our collective energies into creating immense momentum behind the AFL Outer East and all it's competitions.

I'd like to thank all clubs for their patience and support and the AFL Outer East Commission and Staff who have put in a mountain of work to get us all to this point. In particular I'd like to welcome our new staff; Sheryn Harbert - our new Finance Officer, Allan Grant - our Director of Umpiring, Greg Heinrich - who has taken on the role of Netball Development Manager and Matthew Fotia - who is the league's Media Manager.

Of course I would like to thank all of our sponsors, with special mention to Competition Sponsors - Bendigo Bank, Yarra Valley Water, Divisional Sponsors – Totally Workwear Berwick and Knoxfield, Hallam and Bayswater Truck Centres, ATC Traffic , Junior Sponsor – Glenbrae Signs and Media Partner GameFace.

Hopefully this year is your clubs year and success meets you at the end.

APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN FOR THE COUNTRY FOOTBALL AND NETBALL PROGRAM

The State Government is giving growing football and netball clubs in regional Victoria another chance to upgrade grounds, courts and pavilions.

Applications are now open for the 2019 Country Football and Netball Program, with clubs in regional Victoria and outer metropolitan areas eligible to apply.

In partnership with the AFL, AFL Victoria and Netball Victoria, the program replaces and upgrades ageing facilities for football and netball clubs across rural, regional and outer metropolitan Victoria to meet growing demand and welcome more participants.

Grants of up to $100,000 will go to projects that assist in ground resurfacing, installation of lighting, building modern and safer netball courts and new pavilions with accessible and female-friendly change rooms.

Since launching in 2005, the program has invested more than $26.6 million in more than 480 projects across the state.

Minister for Tourism, Sport and Major Events Martin Pakula said, "Some of our greatest football and netball stars have come from country Victoria and we want our next generation of athletes to have the modern and safe facilities they deserve."

"Better facilities allow clubs to take on more players, host more events and draw in even bigger crowds which we know is even better news for the local economy."

Member for Eastern Victoria Harriet Shing said, "This funding continues our record investment in upgrading local clubs and facilities, and making sure that they are accessible, modern, fit for purpose and the heart of our communities for training, competition, gatherings and celebrations."

From the Media Desk

What a way to enter the new Outer East era, with a six-point thriller between Berwick and Narre Warren in front of a packed house at Edwin Flack Reserve.

In what was a cracking day for sport in general, those in attendance were treated to a tight tussle with the biggest margin still well under 20 points. But what can we takeaway from this weekend? How good are these two sides? Are they the clear front runners? What's their style?

Don't stress – you've come to the right place. Here's three takeaways from this weekend.

1 – Magpie Slingshots.

In nature – the Magpie or 'Swoopy Boi' usually attacks its opponent by swooping down from above its bloody and scary and quite a dominant showing. But not these Narre Warren Magpies. The Magpies scored most of their goals from turnovers in the defensive half before sling shooting the ball forward in a counter attacking style.

The problem for Narre Warren on the weekend was their inability to hit targets moving forward to make the most of this game style. Unless classy midfielder Trent Cody was the one with Sherrin in hand, the likelihood of the ball finding its target was substantially low. This should improve throughout the season and so should Narre – but whether this slingshot tactic will be effective on smaller grounds is definitely an interesting proposition,

2 – Missing Links.

It's been well noted that most of the South Eastern venues in the Outer East are much larger than the tight confines of some grounds in the Yarra Valley region . Whilst this allows skilful running players more space to show their talents, and should mean some more high scoring affairs, it does make the role of the half-forward much more important.

Neither side this weekend was able to find a successful link man, someone akin to Tom Lynch (Adelaide Crows) and Jack Gunston in the AFL. Narre Warren would've expected more from Mitchell Cox and Michael Collins in this role. To often they had to turn to Aaron Wilson to fill the role, despite him looking like tier most dangerous deep forward.

Berwick seemed to have originally planned for Jordy Andrews to play that role or Andrew Morozoff and Tim Gunn. Andrews was especially quiet until the last quarter and Morozoff often had to go way to far up the ground to collect the football.

This lack of link men meant the half backs for both sides were able to run rampant in terms of collecting possessions. Berwick made more of this opportunity with Frankston VFL listed Will Arthurton and Nick Hillard finding a lot of the football. Clubs heading to the big wide expanses need to get their half-forward working overtime to make the most of it.

3 – Time and Harrison Money.

You would've been forgiven for missing Harrison Money at the centre bounce, despite him lining up at full forward for the Wickers. The diminutive forward has none of the attributes that a usual full forward exudes.

That is until the ball comes nearby. Whenever Berwick moved the ball forwards, they were drawn to kick towards the Berwick Number 10. Often it was a good decision as Money was rarely beaten on the ground or in the air – despite his lack of height.

Money is very willing to lock arms and grapple in one on one contests rather than use his speed on the lead, and like all flashy 'small' key forwards he has the urge to stand on people's shoulders.

He was kept relatively quiet in the first half kicking just two behinds but managed two goals in both the third and fourth quarters, with his last two goals coming within a minute of each other to take the game away from Narre Warren.

Apparently this is a common occurrence for Money – he eats the big moments for breakfast and it looks like there will be plenty of big moments for Berwick this season.

WEEK 1 NETBALL REVIEW

Footy isn't the only thing that took flight last weekend – Netball also started off in front of a strong crowd at the Edwin Flack Reserve as traditional rivals Berwick and Narre Warren were first to throw the new energetic ball about in 2019.

The Magpies headed in as favourites for the A Grade clash, and managed to complete a routine win by 13 goals (51-38), blowing Berwick out of the water in the second and third quarters scoring 28 goals to 17 in that time period.

Magpie Goal-Shooter Chloe Phillips was in red hot form from the first whistle, scoring all 14 first quarter goals for Narre Warren before taking her tally to 25 at the halftime break netting 11 of the Magpies 15 in the second. Her battle with Hayley Alman intensified in the second half, as Alman competed well and kept Phillips to just four more goals in the second half.

At the other end Jemma Osborne kept Berwick Goal-Shooter Emma Clarke relatively quiet, with the Wickers' goaller finishing with 20 goals, managing just seven for the entire second half.

She was unable to have a breakout quarter like her opposite number (Phillips) with her second quarter haul of seven her highest. Berwick Goal Attack and Casey Demons VNL player Cassidy Withers was the Wickers best on court, but still struggled to hit the scoresheet finishing with just 13 goals. Taylah Butterworth netted the other five.

Madison Maund proved to be the best midcourter on the afternoon, rotating between the Wing Attack and Centre position for Narre, tormenting Olivia Macente and Caitlin Anthony. Jayde Stow also did well through the middle for the Magpies, playing as the Wing Defence she faced three different opponents in Butterworth, Jamie Cotter and Brittany Pym.

All eyes will now be on the Magpies as they face Olinda Ferny Creek this coming weekend. With the Bloods considered the number one netball of the 'Valley' the Magpies have a massive chance to make a statement. For Berwick it may be a 0-2 start with Wandin's depth likely to see it rate fairly well in Premier A Grade this season.
